It has been decided these committees will work in private but that the minutes of their meetings will be published as soon as possible.

Honoria Pueyredon, head of the Argentine delegation, on the floor today, speaking in French, declared that the success of the league required a most complete membership and referred to the necessity in his view of the United States coming in.

REAL WINTER STRIKES OHIO SNOW IS HEAVY

Average Snowfall in State Six And One-half Inches

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., November 17.—A first real touch of winter brought a six and a half inch blanket of wet snow to Ohio today and a temperature ten degrees below normal for this time of year.

Thousands of early morning workers plowed their way on foot to their daily tasks, with street car service partially crippled. Reports also indicate interurban and steam lines over the state are seriously handicapped by the unexpected heavy snowfall.

The average fall for the state, according to the weather bureau here today, was six and a half inches. The temperature began to drop last night and by this morning had reached a point ten degrees below normal for this time of the year, it was said at the bureau.

Delay of interurban, steam and street car traffic, reports indicate, is worse in northeastern Ohio and in the vicinity of Cleveland.

Intermittent snowing all day, with a practical let-up by night, was predicted by the weather bureau.

WESTERN UNION MAY LOSE PERMITS

State Department Makes Threat To Revoke Cable Privileges

Excessive Charges and Partiality Alleged by Government

(By Associated Press)

Washington, November 17.—A veiled threat that the permits granted for the landing of Western Union cables in the United States will be revoked unless the company will continue to accord the American government what it accords the British and other governments in handling cable messages, is contained in a formal statement issued today by the State Department.

"The Western Union Telegraph Company," says the announcement, "not only has refused to accept any government cable messages without prepayment of tolls, but also has refused to carry at the reduced government rate messages originating outside of the United States."

"Obviously," said the Department's statement, "The United States could not be expected to allow the Western Union Company, an American corporation, to charge for its messages twice the rate charged for example, the British government, nor accede to a requirement that the ordinary plan of business with respect to periodical settlement of accounts shall be set aside in dealing with our government."

SAYS NOTHING UNREASONABLE HAS BEEN ASKED

Western Union Subject to Same Provisions As Others Says State Department.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, November 17.—The State Department in its first formal statement relative to its controversy with the Western Union Telegraph Company declared today that "nothing unreasonable has been asked of the Western Union Company; nothing not required from and without objection granted by other companies."

CONSTANTINE RIGHTFUL KING SAYS GOUNARIS

Expects Former Ruler Back On Throne in Near Future.

(By Associated Press)

Athens, Greece, November 17.—"Constantine is our rightful king," former Premier Gounaris, leader of the successful party in the Greek elections, told the correspondent today. "And we expect him back as soon as a plebiscite is held showing that the people want him."

"We expect to assume the government in a day or two," continued M. Gounaris. "It was the intention of Constantine to return after the plebiscite and I have no message from him that he is coming earlier. If the plebiscite shows the people want Constantine I do not see why France or Great Britain should interfere."

The election was won because the people regarded the Venizelists as usurpers by force.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, November 17.—No corporation or group of corporations and no group of individuals is going to "deliver American recognition to Mexico," it was stated authoritatively today at the State Department.

It was stated that as a preliminary to recognition the American government did not insist upon the abrogation of Article 27 of the Mexican constitution, provided the operation of the article did not infringe upon the rights of Americans in Mexico.

Officials added, however, that if the operation of the laws enacted under article 27 were confiscatory or retroactive the United States could not accord recognition.

The United States, it was declared, was actuated solely by a desire to protect all valid interests of Americans in Mexico.

PRETTY GIRLS CAME TO DEATH BY BOOZE ROUTE

Had Partaken of Too Much Lemon Extract And Died Of Exposure

Mystery Surrounding Finding Of Actresses' Bodies Is Unravelled

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, November 17.—Confessions from the two men held in connection with the deaths of the two actresses, Marie Ranney and Lillian Thompson, found in Grant Park Sunday morning, has cleared up nearly all the details, police said today, and have established that the girls died from alcohol and exposure and without violence.

Police still are searching for two other men, who are said to have been with the actresses early Saturday evening.

According to the confessions given out by the police, the two men being detained met the girls after the latter had obtained the liquor which played the chief part in causing their deaths.

These two men, their confessions declare, left the girls at their own request in Grant Park, and it is believed by the police that the young women wandered there until overcome by exposure.

Investigation has disclosed, it was said, that the girls had partaken of "lemon extract," purchased near their home Saturday night, in addition to other liquors which chemical examination disclosed in their stomachs. No traces of poison were found, the police said.

Entombed Men Three Miles Under Mountains When Mine Ignites

One Man Still Missing When Rescuers Return To Surface.

Dense Gas and Smoke Make Rescue Work Difficult

(By Associated Press)

Earlington, Ky., November 17.—Ten miners were rescued today from the burning Arnold coal mine near here. Bodies of five others were recovered. One other person trapped was still missing.

The rescue was effected by tunneling around the fire which had shut off the single entry of the mine, and came 20 hours after the flames broke out.

Three white miners among the 16 entombed are among the dead, all of the rescued being negroes as also the one missing man.

The men were caught three miles back in the mine when fire broke out yesterday afternoon and cut off their escape.

After all other attempts at rescue had failed, a tunnel was dug around the entry and a start made for the miners. The rescue party, after foraging into the mine for a good distance, however, were driven out because of the denseness of the smoke and gas.

Another rescue party, armed with gas masks, went to the end of the mine.

One other negro in the mine was working close to the entrance and discovered the fire soon enough to make his escape.

Huddled together in a little group near the blazing entrance of the mine this morning were the wives and families and little children of the entrapped men. They had kept a sorrowful and tireless vigil throughout the night in the faint hope their loved ones would be spared them.

Committee of 100 is Told No Good Can Come From Quiz.

Declines to Submit Any Information to The Committee

(By Associated Press)

Washington, November 17.—The British Embassy today notified the committee of 100 investigating conditions in Ireland that it did not approve of the purpose to be served or the method to be followed in the committee's hearings to begin here tomorrow and that therefore it could not accept the invitation to be represented.

The Embassy's reply, addressed to Oswald Garrison Villard, editor of The Nation, who appointed the committee, declared the only outcome of the inquiry would be the spread of propaganda and that there was nothing in the composition of the committee itself to remove from it the idea that it was not impartial or prejudiced in advance.

BIG SNOWFALL TIES UP WORK HALTS TRAFFIC

Thirty-hour Snow Covers Ground To Depth of Six To Seven Inches.

Colder Temperature is Indicated By Weather Forecaster.

Starting early Tuesday morning and snowing steadily for fully thirty hours one of the heaviest snows in recent years resulted, with a carpet of "the beautiful" six to seven inches in depth covering all of this part of Ohio and moderate temperature existing.

With hardly a let-up the snowfall continued through the night and into Wednesday, driven by a light northeaster to north breeze which was gradually shifting northward and increasing in strength so that at times it reached almost blizzard proportions.

In this city no snow-plow had opened the way for pedestrians, and many were forced to take the middle of the street and then wade through snow well about their ankles.

It was an ideal morning to test the "low cut" and "no rubbers" fad, as some found out to their very great discomfort.

The streets were slow in breaking and the highways of the county were very dangerous to traffic unless slow speed maintained and with well chained auto wheels. Three fourths of the usual traffic was suspended as result of the deep snow and likelihood of accident.

Two or three collisions were reported in the city during Tuesday night as result of the blinding snow.

Fair and colder weather was in prospect for Thursday according to the earlier bureau.

The snow put a stop to most farm work, particularly corn husking, and it will probably be several days before snow has melted sufficiently to allow work to proceed unhampered.

WILL NOT TOLERATE DISCRIMINATION

Investigation of recent complaints shows that in certain cases ticket sellers employed by the Penna. Railroad, and authorized to sell Pullman accommodations, were holding back available space from patrons and selling it only when gratuities were forthcoming. It is declared such practices have no place in the operation of the Penna. Railroad and their continuance will not be tolerated under any conditions. The management is determined to wipe out absolutely as far as its own employees are concerned, all discriminatory practices which have crept in with regard to sale of any accommodations.

The Penna. Railroad wants the public to understand that so far as its facilities are concerned, they are available to all its patrons without preference. The rule, "First come, first served" is the rule of this company, and the earnest co-operation of its patrons is requested to the end that this rule may be applied absolutely. Any deviation from the above practice is in direct violation of the policy which the Penna. Railroad is making every possible effort to carry out. In this connection seven ticket sellers in Penna. station New York City, were recently detected receiving bribe for the furnishing of Pullman space. They have been summarily discharged from the railroad service by order of the general manager.

Moxley of near Johnson's Crossing, who died at the Fayette Hospital Sunday evening from injuries received in an automobile accident Saturday night.

Rev. Karl B. Alexander conducted the simple services and preached a sermon of sympathetic meaning. He told of the uncertainty of life and the necessity of having strength to trust in God.

George Lawrence Moxley was a member of Company G, 166th Infantry at Greenfield, and served overseas. He received wounds which caused him total disability and was also gassed. The Paul H. Hughey Post of the American Legion was represented.

Pallbearers were six former service men.

Following the services interment was made in the Washington cemetery.

NEWSPAPERS ARE JUSTIFIED IN RATE RAISE

Increase In All Commodities Has Been Heavy

Like Utilities The Newspaper Must Give 24 Hour Service

Chicago, November 16. Newspapers which have advanced their subscription rates 100 and 200 per cent, and advertising rates from 50 to 150 per cent, are justified in their action. This is the conclusion reached in a report issued by the Illinois Committee on Public Utility Information after an extensive survey made at the request of advertising managers of utility companies, accessories and equipment concerns and utility investment houses. The committee report makes this important point: That newspapers and public utilities in many respects are in the same boat.

They cannot suspend operations when production costs become troublesome or operating conditions unfavorable. A manufacturing plant can suspend. A news paper or a utility corporation can not; both are 24-hour services.

The committee's investigation laid bare facts that show that newspaper costs increased from August 1, 1914, to January 1, 1920, as follows: Paper 212.50 per cent; ink, 209 per cent; machinery, equipment, 104 per cent; labor, 91.75 per cent.

And to show that this year such expenses have continued to advance, it is stated that from January 1, 1920 to September 1, 1920, an additional cost was recorded as follows: Paper 48.75 per cent; ink, 16.55 per cent; machinery, equipment, 20 per cent; labor, 11 per cent.

Depositors of Houston Bank Expected to Receive Dollar For Dollar.

The Houston Bank, of Charleston, which was closed by the State Banking Department a few days ago because it is expected to pay dollar for dollar to depositors, and Foster B. Houston, president of the institution has announced that he will sell all of the Houston land if necessary to liquidate the bank's affairs.

The following information from the London Democrat is of particular interest in connection with the bank's troubles.

"Houston attributes the bank's failure to the fact that farmers have failed to move their corn crops. All of the bank's loans are on good security, according to Houston.

"The resources are given at $900,000 including loans amounting to $883,638.66. Deposits Saturday were estimated in the neighborhood of $300,000.

The resources of the institution are placed at more than $900,000 with deposits estimated at $300,000. The request that the department take over the bank was made because of the fact that their loans and investments were such that they could not be turned into liquid form immediately. The Houston bank is one of the interests owned by the Houston trust estates, which is one of the largest estates in Clark and Madison counties.

Trustee of 10,000 Acres
"Mr. Houston is trustee for 10,000 acres of land left by the late Leon Houston in Clark and Madison and Edwin Houston in Clark and Madison Cos., and member of state board of agriculture, being an appointee of Governor Cox. CHARGES SLUMP DUE TO GAMBLING

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, November 16.—Blame for the present slump in prices for farm products was laid at the door of a "well organized conspiracy on the part of grain gamblers and some of the captains of finance," by O. G. Smith, of Nebraska, president of the Farmers' National Congress, in his annual address at the opening session of that body's annual convention here today.

Mr. Smith expressed the hope that "the congress of the United States will endorse farmers in their refusal to sell their products at a loss."

Smith urged the passage of the French bill, requiring labeling of woolen goods; the Kenyon bill, to control meat packers; urged the restriction of immigration; urged dismissal of Louis F. Post, Immigration commissioner, and praised the American Legion for its Americanization work.

He condemned the Nolan bill, which seeks to levy a tax of one percent on farm values in excess of ten thousand dollars.

The farmers were warned against buying worthless stock. The convention continues through Friday.

WAS WALL STREET BOMBING RESULT OF UNION WAR?

The New York World, in a recent article based on months of investigation by its staff, stated that the bomb which wrecked the Morgan bank and killed and injured scores in the Wall street district in New York was directed to the site of the stock exchange annex in revenge for alleged mistreatment of members of Local No. 95 men by the so-called "Brindell's union." Brindell is president of the building trades council, now under investigation. He formed a house wreckers' union in opposition to the No. 95 union. William Zaranko is president of that union. Zaranko has been leading the fight against Brindell. Both men deny that their organizations were implicated in the outrage.

DENIES FARMERS HAVE A PLAN FOR MARKETING WHEAT

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, November 16.—On behalf of the farmers' marketing committee of seventeen recently appointed by the American Farm Bureau Federation, C. V. Gregory, editor of a farm journal here, today issued a statement denying that the committee had adopted any plan for marketing wheat. "The committee of seventeen was appointed to study grain marketing and work out plans to prevent fluctuations in price which are a hardship both to producer and consumer," said Mr. Gregory.

"The committee realizes that the public must not be asked to pay inflated prices for grain, and in any plan of grain marketing that may be proposed the interests of the public will be fully safeguarded."

"The committee believes that any drop in wheat prices should be passed on to the consumer, and that there is something wrong in a distributing system that compels consumers to pay war prices for bread when wheat is selling for more than a dollar below war levels."

WORLD CANNOT BUY THREE DOLLAR WHEAT ECONOMIST DECLARES

Waterloo Iowa, November 16.—"The world has not the purchasing power to buy three dollar wheat," E. G. Nourse, head of agricultural economics, Iowa State Agricultural College, said today in an address before the farmer-bankers conference here.

WASTE PAPER OF ANCIENT EGYPT

Paris (By Mail)—Thousands of mummified bodies of the sacred ibis have been found by the French savant, M. Lacau, in the underground necropolis under the famous ruined temple at Deir Medineh, Egypt.

Each bird was in an elaborately decorated vase of earthenware embedded in a sort of cardboard formed by a conglomeration of papyrus which totalled hundreds of thousands of written documents.

M. Lacau said the find was one of the most important of the late discoveries in Egyptology. The work of deciphering the documents will take years.

"It is the wastepaper basket of ancient Egypt," said one of those charged with the work.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

The Browning Club was indebted to the History and Civic's department for an evening so full of interest and liberal in its out giving of information that it well repaid the effort of braving the winter's storm.

In the absence of the Chairman, Miss Jean Howat, Mrs. Ada M. Jones, Vice Chairman presiding.

The papers were excellent. Mrs. Frances Junk opened the evening's work in a comprehensive presentation of Belgium under French rule.

Belgium owes its national existence to ceaseless industry. This industry can be traced to Celtic sources. The Belgians were descendants of Celtic and German tribes. The French influence extended from Charlemagne until the time of Napoleon the third. The institutions were shaped by Charlemagne's own hand and commerce began to develop and Ghent, Antwerp and Bruges became centers of national life. The vestiges which remain of the Napoleonic era are splendid ones. When Louis Philippe failed to get control of the Belgian National Congress, France consented to the election of Leopold, 1st King of the Belgians. Throughout the centuries, Belgium in throwing off the yoke taught the world that their country had grown into a nation.

"Belgium Under Dutch Rule" was discussed by Mrs. Jess Persinger. The writer said after the fall of Napoleon, Belgium was considered the spoil of the Allies. They feared French absorption if they granted independence to Belgium, but the final settlement resulted in the foundation of the new kingdom of the Netherlands. Belgium and Holland uniting under one rule, which was a bad combination. King William was too Protestant, too Dutch, too Autocratic for the good of all. There was too much difference in manners, language and faith of the two peoples. Oppressions crept in—then persecutions which led up to the Revolution of 1830 and culminated in their independence after 375 years of subjection.

Mrs. Clara White treated of "Founding of the Kingdom and the rule of the Leopolds." She spoke at length on Belgium nationality, prosperity and expansion by commerce and colonization of America's indebtedness to the Walloons as well as the Flemish who first made homes in New Netherlands. Many Americans are really descendants of the Walloons instead of the Huguenots. King Leopold realized new avenues of trade and expansion must be found elsewhere and secured land in Africa. He was called the founder of a nation, a constitution and a dynasty.

Interesting discussions followed the papers. Miss Mary Baughn gave great pleasure in her artistic rendition of the Paderewski minuet in G.

Several Fayette County girls and boys first honor winners in the Boys' and Girls' Club work are included in the total number of almost 600 young people at the Ohio State Campus this week.

The Ohio State Journal says it keeps 19 chaperons busk looking after their interests.

The curiosity of the boys and girls is said to have doubled the work of bellboys and telephone operators at the hotels where they are quartered due to the delegates' early habits. Many of the young people are used to arising at 4 a. m. and as their convention day does not begin till several hours later the mysterious buttons and telephone instruments engage their constant attention say hotel attaches.

Following an address at 11 o'clock today in the university chapel by President Thompson the club winners will be taken on an auto tour of the city as guests of the Franklin county fair bureau.

lined the work of the year. Songs and yells rounded out the evening.

"The Immigrant Mother and Child" is the subject of the attractive poster in Stutson's Store window, calling attention to the pageant, "The Red Cross of Peace," which will be given at the High School Auditorium Friday evening.

This poster emphasizes the help which the Red Cross gives to the people in foreign countries. At the present time, the Red Cross is carrying on relief work in the Balkan States.

It is impossible to witness the pageant without carrying a way a definite appreciation of the service that lies before the Red Cross. The Public Health nurse ministering to old and young; Home Service aiding the soldier in his adjustment to civil life; the Health Center acting as a medium for health education and co-ordination of health activities; Disaster Relief, with a record of thousands of lives saved and much suffering mitigated during the thirty-nine years of Red Cross existence, and the Junior Red Cross, which is training millions of American children to live unselfishly and usefully—all this is visualized by "The Red Cross of Peace."

ALMOST BLEEDS TO DEATH WHEN FOOT IS GASHED

Woman Attempts To Summon Help With Dinner Bell and Conch Shell.

Woman Faints From Loss of Blood When She Is Rushed To Doctor's Office.

Loss of blood came near causing the death, Tuesday morning, of Mrs. Andrew Delong, residing on the Adam Beck farm on the Jasper-Staunton road about a mile north of Staunton.

A few minutes after her two children had gone to school and her husband had left for the back of the farm Mrs. Delong was cutting kindling when the ax slipped, striking the arch of her foot, severing a large vein.

Although the incision was not more than an inch and a half long the blood spurted from it in a stream.

Realizing her danger, and knowing that it would be noon before her husband returned to the house she attempted to signal for help. There was no telephone in the house.

The dinner bell was rung three times. Working in a field about a quarter of a mile from the Delong residence, C. F. Wikle heard the bell but supposed that the children were playing with it.

Feeling that unless assistance came within a few minutes she would bleed to death, she procured an old conch shell on which she blew several long blasts.

It was only a short time afterward that her husband came to the house and found Mrs. Delong with a bloody bandage around the injured foot, while the floors in the house were covered with blood where she had walked from one room to another. The three trips to the dinner bell left a trail across the back yard.

Running to the Wikle home a quarter of a mile away, an attempt was made to summon a doctor by phone. It seemed that all were out on calls and that it would be sometime before a doctor would be able to give assistance.

Mrs. Delong was placed in the Wikle automobile and rushed to the Stitt-Todhunter offices in this city. She fainted as she was placed on the operating table.

Doctors stated that within a short time help would have been too late and death would have resulted.

DIAZ IS IN JAIL UNDER HEAVY BOND

Man Who Purchased Diamond Is Out But Seventy Cents and Valued Stone is Safe.

Frank Diaz, self confessed diamond thief is now in the county jail to await action of the Grand Jury, being bound over under $1000 bond by Mayor V. J. Dahl.

Diaz, a Spaniard from El Paso, Texas, pled guilty to entering a room at the Cherry Hotel Monday and stealing a diamond valued at $75, the property of Mrs. Frank G. Carpenter.

When arrested by Chief of Police D. L. Moore Tuesday the man had $9.30 cents in his pockets. This was the remainder of the ten dollars which he received from Ed Cavinec from the sale of the diamond after he had purchased his dinner.

The police returned the $9.30 cents to Cavinec and he was out but 70 cents for the little transaction. The stone was returned to Mrs. Carpenter.

THREE PLAYERS OUT BECAUSE OF INJURY

Washington High Will Meet Crillicoth High Minus Three Crack Performers.

Washington High School will play Crillicoth High here Saturday afternoon crippled by the loss of three regular players.

Hitchcock, who had his shoulder injured in the Wilmington game, will not be able to play any more this season under the doctor's orders.

Carroll Flee, who played one of the best games of his career at Circleville last Friday, but who was so severely injured that he is walking on a cane this week and who also had his wrist hurt, will probably not be able to appear in the lineup against Crillicoth.

George Lamb, halfback, was also so bruised and battered that he will not be able to play unless he makes unusually rapid recovery before Saturday.

Despite these handicaps the spirit of the team is as high as any time during the season and the fans predict a victory for the Blue and White.

COLUMBUS GAS DEVELOPMENTS

Columbus, O., Nov. 17.—Following are the high points in the gas controversy at the present time:

Columbus distributing companies offer to accept rate of 50 cents a thousand feet for annual contract. Do not specify how money is to be divided between them and producers.

Distributors' officials admit industrial consumers used much gas here during last winter's cold snap.

Producers' representative declares his company will sell gas to highest bidders and will not accept less than 66 2/3 cents.

Both companies admit Columbus gas shortage largely due to faulty distribution system.

George S. Marshall charges 25 cents rate resolution, pending before utilities commission for four years, never has been pressed for hearing by city attorney Scarlett denies it.

FARM NOTES

HERE'S GOOD NEWS FOR OHIO KRAUT PRODUCERS

Is cabbage yellow disease which often destroys more than half of the cabbage on infested fields in Ohio, about to be controlled? For years this fungous disease has been a menace to the big cabbage producing sections of northern Ohio as well as to the truck growing districts about Cincinnati, Dayton, Marietta, Toledo, and other Ohio cities. Since the fungous lives in the soil, and is known to persist for at least 20 years, rotations have been ineffective as a control measure.

After several years of experimentation, however, so-called disease resistant strains have been developed at the Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment Station, which were tried out this year in several sections of Ohio. They proved to be 100 percent resistant, both in southern and northern Ohio districts. It is said, however, that inasmuch as the summer was cool and therefore unfavorable for the development of yellows, further trials will have to be made before general conclusions may be drawn. Previous tests, however, in dicke that even in years when yellows is especially destructive the varieties have been 90 percent resistant to the disease. While resistant to yellows, these varieties are not resistant to club root and other diseases.

The All Season and the Wisconsin Hollander were the two strains grown this year in Ohio. Growers in southern Ohio found that All Season matured only a week later than the Copenhagen which they have been depending on for their early crop. The Wisconsin Hollander matures much later and is not adapted to the early markets of southern Ohio.

It is expected that 20 pounds of seed of the All Season and Brunswick varieties will be distributed in Ohio for next season's trials. The seed is being propagated by the National Kraut Packers' Association, on Long Island and Puget Sound. Incidentally this is where most of America's cabbage seed is grown.

BIG DEVELOPMENT IN APPLE SCAB THIS YEAR

A very severe attack of scab was the outstanding development in Ohio this year among apple diseases, according to observations made by Dr. E. E. Clayton field plant pathologist

The League Assembles

The opening session of the League of Nations was held in Geneva, Switzerland on Monday. Paul Hymans, former Foreign Minister of Belgium, was chosen permanent president.

Many preliminary matters came before the organization for consideration and discussion. Some definite action was taken, there was some disagreement manifested and there was some indications that the League would not proceed to perfect its permanent organization and plans by unanimous vote. Those facts though are not sufficient to warrant any feeling of pessimism.

It is reasonable, however, knowing nations and peoples by history to conclude that the League of Nations will not—cannot—be the great force for good which its advocates have insisted it would be without the membership and active co-operation of the United States of America. It is too early to predict the failure of the peace league plan. The world must not permit it to fail if it can be avoided. Too much depends on the proper functioning of the plan to preserve peace.

It is not amiss, however, to face the true facts now that the campaign is over and we can, all of us, consider and discuss the league as a world movement, outside of politics, as it always should have been.

The member nations of any league to promote and preserve peace cannot escape carrying features of an alliance rather than a world-wide movement unless the United States is numbered among the member nations.

Pro-league leaders and speakers during the campaign vehemently announced that the participation of the United States was unnecessary to the proper functioning of the league. That statement is not borne out by developments. The United States is needed as a member of the League of Nations. The presence of this great nation, if not vital to the very existence of the league, will make the operations of the peace organization much more certain to attain its objective and will also bring realization of our hopes much sooner than would occur otherwise.

The isolation of the United States, the known high ideals of our national life, place us above other nations, especially European nations, in the estimation of the world.

All other nations accept without question our assertions of an entire absence of selfish interests. The European nations are not so certain of the purposes of each other.

It is to be hoped that the incoming national administration will be able to, soon after assuming responsibility devise a way to enter the league, safeguarding all American rights and all our governmental institutions.

The world needs the co-operation of the United States, needs the tremendous power of the nation, but above all else needs the high ideals and unselfish leadership in the effort to stop war. The torch of liberty which led the way to victory in the world war must lead the way to peace.

America, in accord on the purpose and the duty should experience no difficulty, now that the disturbing influence of partisan politics is removed, in speedily, defining the method of co-operation.

Frankly, we may acknowledge without egotism the success of the greatest effort for peace the world has ever seen depends on the United States.

Unexplainable

The overwhelming defeat of General Wrangel's Russian army by the Bolshevik forces, the escape of that leader on board a French warship, the fall of Sebastopol to the Reds and the statements that the Bolshevik armies, in numbers, equipment and discipline were greatly superior to the "all Russian" troops constitutes, in itself, seemingly, a heavy discount of the reports of the entire inefficiency of the Soviet regime, its entire failure to function and the consequent chaos and suffering throughout all Russia.

There has been to the world, something inexplicable in the fact that the Soviet regime has endured so long in Russia, if the reports of conditions there are true. Reports as to conditions prevailing in Russia and the demonstrated power of that regime to defend itself against attack from within and from without are impossible of reconciliation.

It seems time that the people be given the true facts regarding Russia. The need of censorship and propaganda is past. We must face conditions and we cannot do that if we do not have the facts.

POETRY FOR TODAY

You are the shooting star.
That pales the Pleiades.
You are the frost
That fires the autumn trees.
You are the sunset
Upon the cloud-fest peaks.
You are the silence
Music seeks.
You are the wind-winged dream
I waken to and banish.
You are the hands that beckon me,

You are every one I pass,

"IS GRANDEST ON EARTH". SHE SAYS

Mrs. Emma Woodsides Tells How Tanlac Relieved Her Of Ten Years Of Suffering.

"Tanlac is the only thing that has ever helped me, and that's saying a good deal, for I have been trying for years to get relief," said Mrs. Emma Woodsides, 314 Indiana avenue, Toledo, Ohio.

"It was ten years ago that I commenced to feel run-down and noticed my health falling. For the past two years, that is until just recently when I began taking Tanlac, I had been in such a weak, nervous condition that I had given up all hope of ever being well again. For several years it has been impossible for me to do any of my heavy housework and even the highest exertion would tire me out. My nerves were in such bad shape that I was easily irritated, noise of any kind would up set me and I never knew what it was to get a good night's sleep. About a year ago I began to have muscular rheumatism and since then my suffering has been almost unbearable.

"For several months I had been having frequent fainting spells and felt so miserable and blue I could hardly stand it. About a month ago a friend of mine persuaded me to try Tanlac and ever since the first day I have been gradually getting better. The first bottle made a wonderful improvement in my condition and as it was the only medicine that had ever done me any good I decided to take it until I was a well woman. I have improved so much that I don't feel like the same person. I am still taking Tanlac and am gaining strength every day and am able already to do all my housework. I am no longer troubled with rheumatic pains and my nerves have quieted down until I can sleep at night just like a child. Two months ago I was ready to give up completely but now I'm a cheerful, happy woman. I just think Tanlac the grandest medicine on earth and words can't express my appreciation of what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Washington by C. S. Haver, in Lowell by Mason's Drug Store, in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis, in Octa by I. W. Murphy and in Mill-edgeville, E. L. Ford Sons, Lee Ortman, Selden. — Advt.

Colored Handkerchief Linens

These are the days when women are beginning in good earnest the handkerchief work for which these handkerchief linens are so much in demand.

It is the part of wisdom to choose these lovely tinted linens early, for often they are difficult to replace.

The New Blouses are So Original

Styles are sharply changed from those of last season—striking colorings and unique effects in designs and trimmings.

But they are wonderfully likable and becoming.

The braid-trimmed Blouses are an interesting feature of the season, and they are as refined and artistic, as they are different.

Speaking of Wool Frocks, You Ought to See the New Arrivals

We are not going to describe them for that would spoil the pleasure you are sure to experience when you see them for the first time. True, the materials are the same as have been shown in earlier models—tricotines, Poirer twills and serges—but in the styles you will find just dozens of surprises. As one would naturally expect the majority of these frocks are navy or black, but quite a few are developed in various shades of brown.

Charming New Collection of Silk Underthings

Daintier and more shapely than ever—and yet, these Silk Under-Garments, once counted a luxury, are today quite as necessary to the well-dressed woman's comfort and sense of correctness, as silk stockings or blouses.

The new lines of the garments, the clever lace adornments and the exquisite tints of the tissues, are most fascinating. Yet most women already know that they are the most economical garments in the long run.

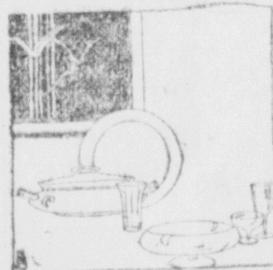

On Thursday, November 18th, Toyland will be opened and we invite every girl and boy in this community to visit Santa's display as soon as possible and as often as they can. Santa has many new and interesting toys this year and he promises to send more and more along up till Christmas.

What are Your Hands Going to Make for Christmas

Perhaps they'll know much better when you clap your eyes on the new things we're showing in our Art Needlework section.

The Stamped Patterns are fascinating—they offer such wonderful possibilities, and the work of creating the finished gift-things is easy for clever fingers, if started in time.

Knit Underwear for Winter

Some women prefer to wear the same kind of light weight underwear the whole year around. Others, more cautious, also wear cotton Union Suits, vests and drawers, but of a more comfortable weight. Both types are carried in our winter stocks along with Underwear of wool, and of wool and silk combined for those who find it more difficult to withstand winter's chilling blasts. A complete variety of styles is offered at pleasingly moderate prices for women and children.

Flannelette Pajamas are So Much More Comfortable Than any Other Kind

Just try wearing a pair some bitter cold night and see how very comfy you'll feel. These Pajamas are neatly made of exceptionally heavy flannelette. The patterns of the fabrics are effectively striped in pink and blue, and silk frog fastenings add an attractive touch. All sizes for women and misses.

Winter Wraps and Coats Have a Luxurious Air

To be sure there are many utility coats which for practical purposes have avoided extensive trimmings and adornment. But in the fashionable wraps there is the luxury of large draped collars; the witchery of the rich, beautiful fur in collars, cuffs and pockets. If one were to mention the predominating color it would be brown—yet it comes in so many variations! Long capes give some models an accentuated draped effect. Such fabrics as peachbloom, duvetyn, velvet, evora, and tinselone, indicate that even the materials have a fashion interest wrapped up in their names.
